

Michelle Dalton

GPAI Secretary & Business Development Manager

Michelle Dalton is the GPAI Secretary and Business Development Manager for the GPAI Creative Cooperative store located at 89 Currie Street Nambour. Michelle is the driving force along with her husband & GPAI President Darrell Dalton behind the GPAI Charity & Creative Cooperative and are instrumental in developing the micro-businesses crucial in creating residual income for the social enterprise. Additionally, Michelle works effectively from the retail space to establish working relationships with local disability, business and local government organisations vital to GPAI's collaborative & restorative approach to all its works. The reason for GPAI's success lays directly with Michelle' & Darrell's passion in all they do and the experience and expertise each bring to the table in areas of coaching, business and much more...